

Dave Williams has been busy compiling a Russ quiz to keep you busy over the festive season when you need a break from all the jollity!

If you open the above attachment you will get a pdf which you will be able to print off so you can fill in the grid at your leisure.

This is just for fun...not a competition. Please don't send me your answers! In case you get stuck on any of the clues, we will put the answers in the January newsletter.

Happy solving and HAPPY CHRISTMAS.

Just click on the button Festive Quiz to open the PDF.
