

THE ANNUAL FESTIVE QUIZ DECEMBER 2020 / JANUARY 2021 (Level 2 for those who like a challenge)

Study the Russ Ballard related clues and enter the missing letters into the grid. Then use the letters in the lilac boxes to solve the song title.

- Loreta routinely has problems with Friends
- Everybody was talking about this according to Adam Faith
- Written by Russ, released by Hot Chocolate, class, but not the one that springs to mind
- Were this bunch evading tax when they recorded Criminal Zero Detective One?
- Russ composition with a squeeze gets nailed by a geordie singer
- Teenage cancer charity fundraising band featuring Russ and friends
- Prunus Aviam funky music US hitmakers release raided third stroke for his song.
- Russ's Hertfordshire birthplace
- Just Another Day (in the life of a fool) by a band with Deep Purple connections in 1982
- Former Beatle reaches the end of the line with this Russ Ballard song
- Tartan glam band's singer asks a question and gets a Clout.
- First orchestra to (UK) record a classical version of Since You Been Gone (1988)
- Second orchestra (UK) to record a classical version of Since You Been Gone (1993)
- Third orchestra (US) to record a classical version of Since You Been Gone (1996)
- Stage persona of retired Kiss member who recorded a cover of Star Studded Sham
- Hot Chocolate hit given the easy listening treatment by famous German organist (1978)
- This singer's resistance was low. I wonder why? Maybe 'Something's Goin' On'

Final Puzzle

Tragedy Part Two? Few Russ Ballard songs crash quite like this one did.