

Russ is going to be playing on a one night rock cruise, 21-22 April 2023, leaving from Stockholm and arriving in Mariehamn. I am sending this as an extra mailing because the ship, as ships go, is small and there are eight bands, so it is likely to get booked up quickly. I know we have Scandinavian readers and maybe some other people might be interested too. The website is in Swedish but there is a button to translate it into English and several other languages.
